

Kids and Pets

Johnny wants a pet. His mom says that he can pick between a puppy and a kitten.

Johnny has to take care of his new pet. If he chooses a puppy he has to take the puppy for a walk every day. If he chooses a kitten, he has to clean out the litter box every day. He goes to the animal shelter with his mom to look at the animals. That is the best place to go because those animals really need a home. He sees a kitten that he likes. She has long black and white hair with green eyes. She is very fluffy and soft.

Johnny picks her and they take her home. He names her Maggie. Maggie sleeps on his bed every night. Johnny loves his new kitten and she loves her new home.

A. Give full answers to the following questions.

1. What does Johnny want?

2. What does he have to do if he chooses a puppy?

3. What does he have to do if he chooses a kitten?

4. Where is the best place to go if you want to adopt a pet?

5. Where does Maggie sleep?

B. Put the sentences in the right sequence according to the reading.

- a. If he chooses a puppy, he has to take the puppy for a walk every day. _____
- b. He goes to the animal shelter with his mom to look at the animals. _____
- c. Johnny wants a pet. _____
- d. If he chooses a kitten, he has to clean out the litter box every day. _____
- e. Johnny loves her new kitten. _____
- f. He sees a kitten that he likes. _____
- g. That is the best place to go because those animals really need a home. _____
- h. She has long black and white hair with green eyes. _____
- i. His mom says that he can pick between a puppy and a kitten. _____

C. There is one, or more than one, error in each sentence. Find the error or errors and write the sentences correctly according to the reading.

1. Johnny buys a pest.

2. If he chooses a kitchen, he has to clean the mail box every day.

3. He goes to the animal shop with his dad to look at the animals.

4. Maggie has short black and white hair with blue eyes.

5. Maggie stays on his bed every day.
