

School and Grades

Joey gets his report card today. All of his grades are on it. He has to show it to his mom when he gets home. His favorite subject is math. He has an A in math. Joey does not like reading. He has a C in reading. He thinks it is boring. His mom is going to be upset with his reading grade. He will not be allowed to play with his video games until he gets a better grade in reading. He practices his reading every night with his mom. He reads books about fishing, basketball and baseball. Those are his three favorite things. He reads because he cannot play his games until he gets a better grade in reading. His mom is happy because he is practicing his reading.

A. Give full answers to the following questions.

1. When does Joey get his report card?

2. What is his favorite subject?

3. What does he think about reading?

4. Who does he practice his reading with every night?

5. Why is his mom happy?

B. Put the sentences in the right sequence according to the reading.

- a. He practices his reading every night with his mom. __
- b. His mom is going to be upset with his reading grade. __
- c. His favorite subject is math. ____
- d. Joey gets his report card today. ____
- e. Joey does not like reading. He has a C in reading. __
- f. He reads books about fishing, basketball, and baseball. __
- g. He reads because he cannot play his games until he gets a better grade in reading. __
- h. He has to show it to his mom when he gets home. __
- i. His mom is happy because he is practicing his reading. __

C. There is one, or more than one, error in each sentence. Find the error or errors and write the sentences correctly according to the reading.

1. Joey gets his business card tomorrow.

2. He has to give it to his teacher when he gets tired.

3. His teacher is going to be upset with his math grade.

4. He will not be allowed to play computer games until he has a worse grade in reading.

5. He practices his writing every day with his teacher.
